Dundee Local Practice Forum
A Strong Voice for Improving Practice

Who We Are and What We Do

Dundee Local Practice Forum provides front-line workers in social work and social care who carry caseloads an opportunity to meet monthly to discuss common issues, exchange information and support the development of good practice.

Membership is open to staff from the statutory and voluntary sectors. The Practice Forum meets every month and gives members a strong voice for improving practice, both locally and nationally.

Improving Practice - Changing Lives

Changing Lives is the report which came out of the 21st Century Social Work Review published by the Scottish Government in 2006. Changing Lives seeks to harness the active involvement of frontline professionals in the development of social work and Local Practice Forums are seen as key vehicles to delivering this.

Getting Your Voice Heard

If you want to contribute to the debate about the future of social work and social care then your Local Practice Forum is the place to get your voice heard.

The Dundee Local Practice Forum is currently coordinated by:

Gareth Eastwood Tel: 307624

Sandra Dowie Tel: 513150

Louise Rourke Tel: 513150

If you believe that social work and social care professionals need a Stronger Voice then join us. By joining the Dundee LPF you can have your say about the important issues affecting social work practice for years to come. With your support we can build a stronger voice for social work in Dundee and ensure that the challenging vision set out in the Changing Lives report for social work services is realised.

For further information about the work of the Dundee LPF; or if you want to be involved in organising future LPF events, then contact either of the coordinators listed above.

Supporting You:

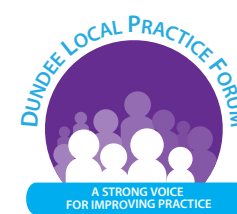

- to contribute to social work service and practice development
- to influence policy and developments at a local and national level
- to develop a shared learning environment, and
- to contribute to the implementation of the aspirations of Changing Lives in Dundee.

A Strong Voice:

- when shaping and developing local and national policy and practice
- when communicating and exchanging information at local and national levels
- when sharing common interests and discussing practice issues with other colleagues.
